Software License and Warranty Agreement

Installing the software and templates (hereinafter referred to collectively as the software) indicates that you accept the terms and conditions of this License Agreement.

Terms and Conditions

The licensee is entitled to install and operate the software on a SINGLE PERSONAL COMPUTER ONLY. However, if a single individual exclusively operates the software, the licensee may additionally install and operate the software on any personal computer.

The licensee is authorised to make backup copies of the program and templates for archival purposes ONLY. You may not transfer or assign this License Agreement to any other individual, corporation or third party. You may not copy any part of the User manual.

Any individual or corporation who is found to be using an unauthorised copy of the software, as well as the individual, corporation or third party who supplied that copy, will be liable to prosecution.

The licensee agrees not to remove, alter or obscure VT Software Limited (hereinafter called VT Software), proprietary rights notices, or to alter, disassemble or decompile the software.

Warranty

VT Software makes no representations or warranties expressed or implied that the software will be uninterrupted or free from error. You use the software entirely at your own risk.

VT Software accepts no liability for errors contained herein or for incidental or consequential damages which may occur from the use or performance of the software.

VT Software accepts no liability for the correctness of advice given by way of support, or for incidental or consequential damages which may arise from such advice.

VT Software makes no representations or warranties as to the availability of support.

In no event will VT Software be liable for any loss of profit or any other commercial damage of any kind.

VT Software disclaims all implied warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose. (Some countries do not allow the exclusion of implied warranties. Therefore this clause may not apply to some licensees. In such cases the liability of VT Software is limited to the purchase price of the software.)

VT Software undertakes to replace any defective CD for a period of ninety (90) days from the date of delivery to you as evidenced by your purchase receipt or invoice.

Termination

VT Software reserves the right to terminate this Agreement for any breach of the terms and conditions of this License Agreement, whereupon the licensee agrees to return to VT Software all copies of the software along with all archival copies. The licensee will not be entitled to any refund of amounts paid for the software.

Governing Law

This agreement shall be construed in accordance with and shall be governed by the laws of England and shall benefit VT Software, its successors and assigns.
